

Resume

Adrian Regenfuß (*28.10.1997)
Weinschenkstraße 4a
80999 Munich, Germany
+49 89 80 92 86 94, +49 160 95 96 43 99
adrian.regenfuss@posteo.de

Interested and motivated student with ambition to learn about new technologies and software. Personal experience in programming and administrating Unix systems. Curious about professional software design and development methods.

Finished school in summer 2016 with excellent grades. Currently doing a Computer Science Bachelor at the TU München.

Employment history

- Internship at Bosch-Rexroth in Bangalore, India, writing an Android app for the surveillance of an engine control unit May - September 2017
- Internship at the Deep Learning Competence Center in the German Research Center for Artificial Intelligence (Deutsches Forschungszentrum für Künstliche Intelligenz, www.dfki.de), with focus on analysis of visual data using convolutional neural networks. September - November 2016
- Summer job at Allocation Network GmbH in Munich (software maintenance and testing of a commercial supplier management system) & eliminate duplicates in the companies exchange mail server database - design, build and test) June - July 2016

Education

Studying Computer Science at the Technical University of Munich
since September 2017

Highschool, finished with General Certificate of Education/GCE (German Abitur). Final grade of 1.5. Karlsgymnasium Pasing, Bavaria. until June 2016

Technical skills

Languages: C, Java, Lua, OCaml

Operating Systems: Linux, Windows

Tools: git, make, gdb, awk, sed, regular expressions, LaTeX

Database: SQL

Additional abilities

- Speaking and writing English fluently
- Reading and speaking French fluently (level B1)
- Touch typing with 70 words per minute

Recent software projects

- Work on a filesystem-based distributed chat client using the tox protocol
- Automatic generation of a word dictionary with word frequencies by analyzing Wikipedia
- More projects at github.com/pranomostro

Extracurricular activities

Co-creation of an audio guide for a historic German labor camp near Munich March 2016

Spent 1 term at Scotch College, Melbourne

July - September 2014

Interests

- Open source software projects
- Playing Piano, Clarinet and Baritone saxophone
- Effective Altruism

References

Andreas Vollmann, Director - Allocation Network GmbH Munich (mail@allocation.net)