

Resume

Adrian Regenfuß (*28.10.1997)
Wriezener Straße 34
13359 Berlin, Germany
+49 177 6370390
adrian.regenfuss@posteo.de
<https://github.com/pranomostro>

Education

- Since April 2021: Computer Science at the Technical University of Berlin
- September 2017–March 2021: Computer Science at the Technical University of Munich
- Until June 2016: Highschool, finished with General Certificate of Education/GCE (German Abitur).

Employment history

- April 2020–April 2021: Part-time software developer at CQSE GmbH (www.cqse.eu), frontend development.
- May–September 2017: Internship at Bosch-Rexroth in Bangalore, India, writing an Android app for the surveillance of an engine control unit
- January–March 2017: Assembly line work at C. H. Beck printing presses
- September–November 2016: Internship at the Deep Learning Competence Center in the German Research Center for Artificial Intelligence (Deutsches Forschungszentrum für Künstliche Intelligenz, www.dfki.de), with focus on analysis of visual data using convolutional neural networks.
- June–July 2016: Summer job at Allocation Network GmbH in Munich (software maintenance and testing of a commercial supplier management system) & eliminate duplicates in the companies exchange mail server database - design, build and test)

Technical skills

Languages: C, Java, Lua, OCaml, SQL

Web development: Javascript, HTML, CSS, Typescript

Tools: git, make, gdb, awk, sed, regular expressions, LaTeX, Maven

Extracurricular activities

- July 2016: Co-creation of an audio guide for a historic German labor camp near Munich
- July 2016–March 2021: Played in the protest band Beatprotest
- June 2019–March 2021: Co-organized Effective Altruism Munich

References

- Daniel Veihelmann, Software Developer — CQSE GmbH Munich (veihelmann@cqse.eu)
- Andreas Vollmann, Director — Allocation Network GmbH Munich (mail@allocation.net)